Description :

PDF-b35ce | The reign of Louis XIV. extended over seventy years, and in so long a period it largely modified the institutions and the power of France. Her European position was far more commanding at the close of the seventeenth century than at its beginning. Alike in political power, in the influence exercised by her society, in the attention attracted by her literature, France was confessedly the leading st... The House of Bourbon - France under Louis XIV and the Regency (Illustrated)
